

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

National Black Nurses Association Opens Registration for 51st Annual Institute & Conference in Atlanta

Silver Spring, MD (March 24, 2023) -- The National Black Nurses Association (NBNA) has announced that registration is now open for the 51st Annual NBNA Institute & Conference, which will be held August 1-6, 2023 at the Hilton Atlanta Hotel in Atlanta, Georgia.

The conference theme is: NBNA Fifty Years and Beyond: Leading the Way in Innovation, Built Environments, Advocacy, Mentorship and Community Engagement.

The NBNA Institute & Conference is the premier event for Black nurses (LPN, RN, retired), nursing students, and healthcare professionals. However, we are inclusive and invite all races, gender identity and ethnicity to attend and participate. The event will feature a variety of educational sessions, workshops, and networking opportunities, as well as a keynote address from prominent healthcare leaders. Attendees will have the opportunity to learn from experts in practice, policy, research and academia, network with peers, and gain valuable insights into the latest health innovation trends and developments in healthcare.

“We are excited to officially open registration for the 51st Annual NBNA Institute & Conference,” said Dr. Martha A. Dawson, President of the NBNA. “This event is a great opportunity for our nurses and nursing students to come together and learn from each other, meet nurse icons from our profession, participate in onsite mentoring, receive scholarships, and engage with our partners. We look forward to seeing everyone in Atlanta in 2023. No other conference does it like NBNA, learning, loving and fun!”

The NBNA Institute & Conference is open to all nurses, guests, and healthcare professionals. Early bird registration is now open and will close on Saturday, April 15. For more information about the conference and to become a sponsor/exhibitor, please visit the NBNA website.
