

Ebene Burney, MS Ed.

Ms. Ebene Burney currently holds an educational position at Pike High School in Indianapolis, IN. While her educational journey has taken her through her Bachelor's and Master's in Education at Indiana University-Purdue University of Fort Wayne, she is a current nursing student at Western Governors University. Her passion for oral health spans over the years serving as an educator and witnessing the health disparities in her students and their families.